

Greenock Privacy Statement

Greenock CAD Service is committed to protecting your privacy and developing technology that gives you the most powerful and safe online experience. This statement applies to the Greenock CAD Service website and governs data collection and usage. By using our website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement. Our Privacy Statement is fully in allegiance with the Global Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), in accordance with the European legislation.

Collection of your Personal Information

Greenock CAD Service collects personally identifiable information, such as your e-mail address, name, home or work address or telephone number. Greenock CAD Service also collects anonymous demographic information, which is not unique to you, such as your ZIP code, age, gender, ...

There is also information about your computer hardware and software that is automatically collected by Greenock CAD Service. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring website addresses. This information is only used for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Greenock CAD Service website.

Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data through Greenock CAD Service public message boards, this information may be collected and used by others. Note: Greenock CAD Service does not read any of your private online communications.

Greenock CAD Service encourages you to review the privacy statements of websites you choose to link to from Greenock CAD Service so that you can understand how those websites collect, use and share your information. Greenock CAD Service is not responsible for the privacy statements or other content on websites outside of the Greenock CAD Service and Greenock CAD Service family of websites.

Use of your Personal Information

Greenock CAD Service collects and uses your personal information to operate the Greenock CAD Service website and deliver the services you have requested. Greenock CAD Service also uses your personally identifiable information to inform you of other products or services available from Greenock CAD Service and its affiliates. Greenock CAD Service may also contact you via surveys to conduct research about your opinion of current services or of potential new services that may be offered.

Greenock CAD Service does not sell, rent or lease its customer lists to third parties. Greenock CAD Service may, from time to time, contact you on behalf of external business partners about a particular offering that may be of interest to you. In those cases, your unique personally identifiable information (e-mail, name, address, telephone number) is not transferred to the third party. In addition, Greenock CAD Service may share data with trusted partners to help us perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to Greenock CAD Service, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

Greenock CAD Service does not use or disclose sensitive personal information, such as race, religion, or political affiliations, without your explicit consent.

Greenock CAD Service keeps track of the websites and pages our customers visit within Greenock CAD Service, in order to determine what Greenock CAD Service services are the most popular. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within Greenock CAD Service to customers whose behavior indicates that they are interested in a particular subject area.

The Greenock CAD Service website will disclose your personal information, without notice, only if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on Greenock CAD Service or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of Greenock CAD Service; and, (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of Greenock CAD Service, or the public.

Use of Cookies

The Greenock CAD Service website use cookies to help you personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you and can only be read by a web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize Greenock CAD Service pages, or register with Greenock CAD Service site or services, a cookie helps Greenock CAD Service to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information, such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same Greenock CAD Service website, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the Greenock CAD Service features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Greenock CAD Service services or websites you visit.

Security of your Personal Information

Greenock CAD Service secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. Greenock CAD Service secures the personally identifiable information you provide on computer servers in a controlled, secure environment, protected from unauthorized access, use or disclosure. When personal information (such as a credit card number) is transmitted to other websites, it is protected using encryption, such as the Secure Socket Layer (SSL) protocol.

Changes to this Statement

Greenock CAD Service will occasionally update this Statement of Privacy to reflect company and customer feedback. Greenock CAD Service encourages you to periodically review this Statement to be informed of how Greenock CAD Service is protecting your information.

Contact Information

Greenock CAD Service welcomes your comments regarding this Statement of Privacy. If you believe that Greenock CAD Service has not adhered to this Statement, please contact Greenock CAD Service via info@greenock.eu. We will use commercially reasonable efforts to promptly determine and remedy the problem.
